Kreston represented on Global Board of The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA)

Thursday, April 05, 2018

The International Office is pleased to announce that Doron Rozenblum, Managing Partner of Kreston IL Group in Israel has been nominated to serve on the IIA Global Board of Directors. Established in 1941, The IIA is an international professional association with global headquarters in the USA and is the profession's global voice, recognised authority, acknowledged leader, chief advocate, and principal educator. Generally, members work in internal auditing, risk management, governance, internal control, information technology audit, education, and security.

Jon Lisby, Kreston CEO said:

"Doron has extensive experience of managing the delivery of specialist internal audit services locally and internationally and I am delighted that he has secured this important position. This is excellent news for the network and for the profession".

Richard Chamberlain, President and CEO of IIA commented:

"Doron's vision and leadership will play such an important role in advancing The IIA's mission and goals in support of our growing membership of almost 195,000 practitioners in over 170 countries and territories around the world. His skills, experience, and commitment are especially vital to the future success of each of our more than 100 international affiliates and more than 160 chapters throughout North America. The IAA is extremely fortunate to have such contributors as Doron and I am sure he will assist to guide our organisation as a leading voice, advocate and standard bearer of the internal audit profession".

Doron, pictured, will take office immediately and will serve at the Annual Business Meeting in Dubai on May 19th.
